Dear and Honored Mr Garrison, I would be impertinent in me to write a long letter to you, or to ask for any thing, as an answer to this intrusion on time so valuable, but your name, at full length, which I should so like to have as an autograph. — Saturday June 29, 1867 I shall Never forget — It is among the "rich and happy memories of the past" — I feel I might wish to your kindness to excuse the liberty I took with my sister to shake hands with you at the close of the meeting — I really could not help it.

Yours most respectfully Sarah Cogswell
P.S. Years ago I lived at Walthamston near London, and, by the assistance of friends ^{who} were in the habit of forwarding articles for the A S Bazaar at Boston to that noble woman,

Walter Weston Chapman -

My much loved friend J^r Hutton, used to forward the 'Liberator' to me with many prized remarks upon its articles -

To William Lloyd Garrison Esq^r -
- The enclosed scrap in your name if you kindly grant my request, will save a moment's time -
